General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR)

According to advice from the BMFA, because you pay a membership fee, in return for which the Club provides certain services, this forms a contractual arrangement and, under the regulations, the Club has the right to contact you regarding matters of club business. Should the Club wish to contact you regarding other matters e.g. a table top sale at another club, you have the right to elect to decline to receive such notifications. The spirit of the regulations requires us to assume that you do not wish to receive such communications unless positively notified otherwise.

The GDPR also requires CMFA to have a Privacy Policy, to explain what information is collected and how it is used. Our Privacy Policy is available on the CMFA website – www.cmfa.org.uk .
